3. School of Distinction! The Connecticut State Department of Education has once again recognized Chatfield-LoPresti School as a School of Distinction for being a school in the top 10% of points earned for academic growth for its High Needs student group for the second year in a row! The High Needs group is comprised of students who may receive free or reduced lunch, may be students with disabilities, or are English-language learners. With the release of the 2016-17 Next Generation Accountability System results, CLS was 1 of only 53 schools to be recognized in this category! Congratulations to the staff and students of Chatfield-LoPresti School!
4. Our Future Business Leaders represented Seymour very well at Friday’s conference. Out of 12 students attending, half of them placed well enough in their competitive events to be invited to compete in the national leadership conference in June. If you see these students, please congratulate them each on a job very well done. Paulina Kowalski – 5th place in Agribusiness, Cody Guillelet – 3rd place in Business Calculations, Rhea Koyama – 3rd place in Introduction to Public Speaking, Zana Imetovski – 2nd place in Introduction to Public Speaking, Zack Braca – 2nd place in Journalism, and Peyton Iott – 1st place in Public Speaking. It’s a great day to be a Wildcat!!!
5. On Thursday, March 22, CLS fifth grader Samuel Rodrigue was recognized as a New Haven County winner in the annual Connecticut Fire Prevention Poster Contest at a banquet at the U.S. Chowder Pot IV in Hartford. Sam is the first Seymour student to win this honor. Congratulations!
