

2016-2017
Teacher of the Year – Seymour, CT
Gina Kindt

“My hope and dream for the children in my classroom is to “always try your best”. The 14 children in my classroom all have a “best” which can look quite different from anyone else’s. Some children are learning the identification of letters, while others are putting letter sounds together to read words, and some other are actually reading books. Differentiation is embraced”

- Gina Kindt