Grade: 10-12  Subject: Spanish III Honors

In Spanish III-Honors, emphasis is placed on verbal conversation, with oral and written reports in Spanish. The writing phase of language learning is given more prominence. At this level, readings from Spanish literature and articles on Spanish civilization give greater depth to students' understanding of Spanish grammar and culture.

Spanish III- Honors – Unit 1 - Días Inolvidables

In this unit, the students will learn to communicate using vocabulary related to the weather, outdoors, camping activities, athletic events, and competitive situations.

The unit takes students through a review of the past tense, with focusing on three of the major problem areas with the preterit: verbs with a spelling change, stem-changing-ir verbs, and irregular verbs with endings unique to themselves. The unit then segues into the Imperfect tense, endings, and the irregular verbs: ser, ir, ver.

Cultural topics include the Chilean landscape, national parks of South America, Ecocamps in Chile and sporting events in the Spanish world.

Spanish III- Honors – Unit 2 –¿Cómo te expresas?

In this unit, the students will learn to communicate using vocabulary related to the art, painting, materials, and ways that people use to express themselves.

Review grammar in Unit 2 focuses on Adjective agreement (gender and number) as well as many of the irregular superlatives (major, peor, mayor, menor). Comparisons between nouns and verbs, as well as, Superlatives is reintroduced.

The new grammar points focused in Unit 2 include an analysis of the Preterite versus the Imperfect tenses, and the various situations they are used in.
Verbs that have definitions changes between the Preterite and the Imperfect are introduced, including Saber, Conocer, Querer, and Poder.

The Past Participle is introduced. Students learn how to form it for –ar, -er, and -ir verbs, as well as many of the irregular forms. The verbs Ser and Estar are revisited and the rules for each reviewed.

Cultural topics include many of the great Spanish artists throughout in the Spanish-speaking world, including Velázque, Miró, Picasso, etc... Many of the historical styles in the art world are discussed, including Cubism, Magic Realism, Surrealism, etc...

Spanish III- Honors – Unit 3 – ¿Qué haces para estar en forma?

In this unit, the students will learn to communicate using vocabulary related to the health, food, and nutrition. Students will learn about words and expressions related to symptoms, and remedies, as well as eating habits, and physical fitness.

Review vocabulary introduced the unit to words related to food and meals, as well as, body parts and ways of expressing moods and physical pain.

Review grammar in Unit 3 focuses on Direct and Indirect Object Pronouns and their placement within a sentence.

The new grammar points focused in Unit 3 include analysis of relationships between "Word Families" and how a verb form and be related to a noun and an adjective based on that verb.

Affirmative Tú commands are reviewed in preparation for the introduction of all other command forms. Also, eight Irregular Affirmative Tú commands are outlined.

Formation of the Subjunctive comprises the majority of Unit 3. Beginning with Regular Verbs, students will learn how to form the Subjunctive, analyzing the many irregularities along the way, including stem-changing verbs, -gar, -zar, -car verbs, and several uniquely irregular verbs.

Command forms are introduced, both Affirmative and Negative. Students learn to manipulate all verbs into commands, and to properly place direct, indirect, and reflexive pronouns.
